CELEBRATING 6 YEARS

SHEILA ROSENBAUM TO BRETT BOUTTIER
 June 4, 2005, Cabo San Lucas, Mexico
 Their destination wedding appeared in our Summer 2006 issue.

"After falling in love with Cabo San Lucas and its beautiful surroundings (and Esperanza resort's signature mojitos), we decided to plan a four-day affair there for our closest friends and family. We wanted our wedding to be intimate and fun. Since the guest list was small, we could really spend time together. The first night, we hosted a cocktail reception. The next day, everyone relaxed in the sun and played golf or went to the spa, then gathered for a bonfire dinner. To cap off the weekend, we exchanged vows on the beach. There were challenges along the way—driving an SUV packed with gift bags, vases, and more across the border tops the list—but watching the waves lap the shore on our wedding night made it all worthwhile. We can't wait to return with our two children." —Sheila Bouttier
