The Award-Winning Resort in Cabo San Lucas Unveils a New Secluded Retreat for Guests

CABO SAN LUCAS, MEXICO - Esperanza, Auberge Resorts' award-winning property in Cabo San Lucas, Mexico, has unveiled the new Auberge Private Residences at Esperanza. The exclusive residences include 36 three and four-bedroom villas offering the secluded retreat that discriminating travelers seek.

Located in the exclusive Punta Ballena community, the Auberge Residences provide guests with the best of both worlds: nearby access to the attractions of Cabo San Lucas and a tranquil sanctuary offering Esperanza's signature service and amenities, which continue to earn top accolades from Travel + Leisure, Condé Nast Traveler, Robb Report, Andrew Harpers Hideaway Report and others. Guest amenities include use of a private Owner's Club exclusively for the Auberge Private Residences at Esperanza, several pools with poolside service from Esperanza, private golf cart per home. Guests also have exclusive privileges at the Punta Ballena Beach Club that features private cabanas, beach access, restaurant and ocean-side pool.

The new villas offer between 3,000 and 4,000 square feet of indoor and outdoor living space with pocket doors that open to private terraces, spacious bathrooms with showers built for two and gourmet kitchens. Well-known residential interior design firm, J Banks Design Group, interprets Esperanza's signature style of barefoot sophistication through a contemporary interpretation of traditional Mexican design using stone and polished plaster work, handcrafted furnishings and local art to complement the relaxed beachside community.

Exclusive guest benefits include:

- Private Guest Club with multi-terraced pool, poolside service, private wine storage and fitness and movement studio
- Exclusive access to the Punta Ballena Beach Club with private cabanas, beach access, restaurant and bar
- Priority reservations at Esperanza's number-one-ranked spa and restaurants, including the dramatic waterfront El Restaurante
- Exclusive 24-hour concierge
