

THE SPA AT ESPERANZA OPENS NEWLY EXPANDED YOGA/PILATES STUDIO

CABO SAN LUCAS, MEXICO – The yoga/pilates studio at The Spa at Esperanza has completed a renovation. The new studio has almost double in size to 1000 square feet and can now hold about 22 people. The studio an open, airy environment feature a palapa roof, wood floor and garden views.

“Water, light and the fruits of the earth and sea are the primary healing elements at the Spa at Esperanza,” according to Tracy Herk, Director of Spa Development, Auberge Resorts. “We’ve created a very special environment where guests can rejuvenate body and soul. Our location in Baja enables us to source an array of tropical fruits, desert plants and sea products for our treatments, which are all prepared fresh each day.”
